NOTES AND ORDERS.

B The Temple Dharmadarsis in their meeting held on 14.1.13 resolved that rent ranging from 0-8-0 & 0-1-0 might be levied on petty shops set up at the time of the Jatra. The Amildar recommended the proposal for sanction as the place was lonely & be rendered ...

by the large crowd as rumbling. The Sub Dr officer suggested whether the cleaning work could not be attended to for some days by the sweepers of the Terakanambi Municipality and that the matter might be placed before the Taluk Board. The Taluk Board resolved on 14.8.13 that by 3 out of the 5 sweepers at Terakanambi being employed to work at the Jatra, the work at neither Terakanambi nor at Hulagana Muradi would be properly done and suggested that a temporary sweeper might be employed from the amount collected as ground rent from the petty shopowners ranging between 8 as to 6 pp. The Sub Dr officer recommends the levy of the fees and states that sweepers not exceeding 3 may be employed. The Dr Contr submits the same for sanction.

Papers with Dr's Enquiries

2. Draft sanctg is invited. 3 It is not clearly known how long the Jatra is to continue whether is it for 3 days or 8 days. The rates recommended appear to be for the whole period of Jatra and so seem to be reasonable. The Branch has no data to check or compare the rates. As the Jatra has to come off on the 13th inst there is no time to be lost. The dft sanctg the rates may be issued.

There are a number of files in which fees have been sanctioned by Govt. These should be perused and a comn table statement submitted comparing rates.
